Do you love to play games? Board games, chess, strategy games, games in the gym?? If you're like me and you can't get enough game time, then this is the camp for you! Each day, we will split our time between a board game extravaganza and gym fun exercising our brains and our bodies. This camp is recommended for the strategically minded, as the board games will be challenging, so if you love to be mentally challenged, come on! In the gym we will also play dodgeball and a variety of other games to give our minds a rest! It's time to see, who's got game!
